

ANAPOL SCHWARTZ ATTORNEY ELECTED TO EXECUTIVE BOARD OF BARRISTERS' ASSOCIATION OF PHILADELPHIA

Philadelphia – July 31, 2009 – Amber Racine, an associate at Anapol Schwartz, Weiss, Cohan, Feldman & Smalley, P.C., has been elected to the executive board of the Barristers' Association of Philadelphia. Established in 1950, the association works to address the professional needs and development of black lawyers in Philadelphia and the surrounding areas through programs such as seminars, cultural events and publications.

Racine joined Anapol Schwartz as an associate in September 2008, and concentrates her practice on consumer class actions, consumer fraud litigation, pharmaceutical litigation and other civil and commercial litigation. From 2002 to 2008, she worked at the firm as a paralegal.

A resident of the Mt. Airy section of Philadelphia, Racine earned her undergraduate degree (B.A., 2004) from Drexel University and her law degree (J.D., 2008) from Temple University's Beasley School of Law. She is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and New Jersey and is a member of the Philadelphia Bar Association, the Pennsylvania Association for Justice, the National Bar Association, the Barristers' Association of Philadelphia and the Urban League of Philadelphia.

Founded in 1977, Anapol, Schwartz, Weiss, Cohan, Feldman & Smalley, P.C., is a personal injury firm with more than 25 attorneys and law offices in Philadelphia, Media, Reading and Harrisburg, Pa., as well as Cherry Hill, N.J. and Wheeling, W.Va. The firm has a multi-faceted practice with a tradition of excellence in pharmaceutical mass tort, medical device matters, toxic tort, class actions, products liability, workplace injury, professional negligence cases, automobile, investor claims and wrongful termination litigation.

###