

For Immediate Release

Contact:

Beth Starrantino
215-793-4666
bstarrantino@startoplin.com

Anapol Schwartz Shareholder Appointed To Widener Law Board Of Overseers

PHILADELPHIA – Nov. 15, 2009 – Bernard W. Smalley, Sr., a shareholder at law firm Anapol, Schwartz, Weiss, Cohan, Feldman and Smalley, P.C., was recently appointed to a three-year term on the Board of Overseers at Widener University School of Law. The Board of Overseers advises the Board of Trustees, president, dean, and faculty on various matters relating to the operation and development of the law school, which has campuses in Wilmington, Del. and Harrisburg, Pa.

A resident of West Philadelphia, Smalley concentrates his practice in medical negligence, pharmaceutical management issues, defamation, class actions, products liability, commercial litigation, and other personal injury matters. He earned his B.A. from Temple University (1971) and his law degree from Widener University School of Law (1980).

Founded in 1977, Anapol, Schwartz, Weiss, Cohan, Feldman & Smalley, P.C., is a civil justice law firm with more than 25 attorneys and law offices in Philadelphia, Media, Reading and Harrisburg, Pa., as well as Cherry Hill, N.J. and Wheeling, W.Va., and co-counsel in Ohio. The firm has represented consumers in matters ranging from dangerous prescription drugs and medical negligence to unsafe products and hazardous work site cases.

