INTRODUCTION

Mesothelioma cancer is a devastating but mostly preventable disease. You and your family have the right to seek compensation for this preventable disease. Mega million dollar corporations have set aside huge sums of money to provide to victims and/or their families for asbestos exposure related diseases.

If you are a grieving family member or executor of the will of a person who has died from asbestos-related disease or Mesothelioma, you may be eligible to file a claim as well. Anapol Schwartz Mesothelioma lawyers can help you.

The complex maze of legal details is most likely the last thing that you want to confront after learning about an asbestos-related illness. Yet, it's to your advantage to let the law firm of your choice to fight for what's right in order to create the necessary funds to finance aggressive treatment, pay for huge medical bills incurred during diagnosis, and provide financial security for your family's future.

The burden of proof lies on your shoulders. It is a difficult and time-consuming responsibility which is why the guidance of an experienced Mesothelioma lawyer is critical in helping victims and your families receive financial compensation.

A good Mesothelioma attorney understands the legal complexities involved in this kind of lawsuit, including asbestos product identification, specific asbestos-related medical issues, and specific time constraints that narrow the window of opportunity in order to file a claim.

Now is the time to find the right Mesothelioma lawyer before your state's statutes of limitations expires, which would unfortunately leave you and your family grieving and empty-handed.

Do not wait another day! Contact us for your free Mesothelioma case review.

WHY FILE A MESOTHELIOMA LAWSUIT

Mesothelioma cancer is one of the most horrible, yet preventable, diseases of the last century. Evidence proves that the danger of asbestos exposure, which is the only known cause of malignant Mesothelioma, has been known since the 1920s. This further proves that for many decades, mega million dollar corporations knowingly and ruthlessly valued profits over people by suppressing the information.

A Mesothelioma diagnosis is an extremely emotional experience. The last thing on a victim or family member's mind is the legal logistic nightmare. Unfortunately, this is not the time to think about it tomorrow as tomorrow may never come and state statutes of limitations wait for no one. Now is the time to file and seek compensation to help pay for huge medical bills and loss of income and well being. A successful Mesothelioma lawsuit can provide financial safeguards for you and your family.

Don't wait. Contact an experienced Mesothelioma lawyer today.

MESOTHELIOMA LAWSUIT FAQ'S

What is Mesothelioma?

Mesothelioma is a rare type of cancer caused by asbestos exposure that affects the lining of the lungs, abdomen, and heart.

What are the symptoms of Mesothelioma?

Mesothelioma symptoms include shortness of breath, chest pain, or coughing up blood. Mesothelioma is difficult to diagnose because it shares symptoms with many different conditions and/or natural signs of aging. Also, different types of Mesothelioma cause different symptoms.

What should people do if diagnosed with an asbestos-related disease?

Victims should follow all their doctors' orders. Victims should also contact an attorney to see if they have reason to pursue legal action against the corporation responsible for their injuries.

Are there time constraints for filing a Mesothelioma suit?

Yes, individual states have laws called statutes of limitations, which limit how much time victims can initiate legal action. Do not delay.

What does the compensation cover?

The potential compensation can cover mounting medical bills resulting from tests and treatment for your illness, pain and suffering you have experienced as well as the mental anguish and grief suffered by you and your family, and financial security for your family after you pass away.

TIMING IS EVERYTHING

Time is of the critical essence when dealing with Mesothelioma cancer or any other asbestos-related disease. Because of the extremely quick progression of the cancer after diagnosis, there is little time to waste before fighting for compensation that could offset huge medical expenses and provide financial security for your family.

During a traumatic crisis such as a Mesothelioma cancer diagnosis, time seems to stand still as emotions cause many feelings to erupt. Even though these emotions are very real, you and/or your family have to act now in regard to filing a Mesothelioma lawsuit.

You may feel incapable of dealing with legal matters; however, waiting is not an option. It is absolutely necessary that you contact an experienced Mesothelioma lawyer as soon as possible.

This sense of urgency is not only due to the rapid speed of the malignancy, but also because varying state statutes of limitations require that you file a claim within a few years of a Mesothelioma diagnosis. Don't miss out on this window of opportunity to let us fight back on your behalf for what you deserve.

OVERVIEW OF A MESOTHELIOMA LAWSUIT

Because of the aggressive nature of Mesothelioma cancer, a victim has limited time to spend with loved ones. A diagnosis of any asbestos-related disease is financially draining as well as emotionally exhausting. Consider that a Mesothelioma lawsuit is an important way to fund costly treatment options for victims and to provide vital financial security down the road.

The first step after receiving such a life-altering diagnosis is to seek expert medical care and a strong emotional support network to aid in the uphill fight against the malignancy. Quality healthcare is important in managing both the physical symptoms of the disease and the emotional grief that accompanies a terminal illness.

The second step should be to contact a qualified Mesothelioma attorney who is experienced in the complexities of asbestos-related law and who can help make the negligent industry take responsibility for its greed. A lawyer specializing in Mesothelioma cases will know how to establish and prove a victim's exposure history, which is often essential information for a successful lawsuit. Don't let time run out before you fight for what you deserve. Contact Anapol Schwartz today.

HIRING A MESOTHELIOMA LAW FIRM

Anapol Schwartz can help you take the mystery and fear out of choosing an asbestos law firm. As the client you have the opportunity to retain the best law firm to represent you or your family against the the multi million dollar companies who robbed you or loved one of their health and well being.

When you retain Anapol Schwartz, we keep in touch about the status of your litigation. Our client care policy confirms that we will return calls within one business day. If you cannot reach your attorney, you can always speak to his/her paralegal. We also can be reached via email and have a convenient toll-free phone number for your convenience.

We are not retained until we both sign a contract – you agreeing to retain us and Anapol Schwartz agreeing to be retained.

WHAT TO DO NEXT:

Contact a Mesothelioma lawyer immediately. (There are statutes of limitations so don't delay.) Start with a free legal consultation.

What to ask prior to retaining a lawyer:

- ✓ Ask about the law firm's experience handling and winning asbestos lung cancer cases
- ✓ Ask about the cost of a Mesothelioma lawsuit
- ✓ Ask what the general status is of victims winning Mesothelioma lawsuits
- ✓ Ask about the timeline of a case
- ✓ Ask what kind of information they need
- ✓ Ask how responsive they are to your questions further down the road
- ✓ Ask what the process is to retain them

What your attorney will need to know:

- ✓ If you signed any contracts with other law firms
- ✓ If you've been diagnosed with Mesothelioma
- ✓ If yes, your doctor's name, address, phone number
- ✓ Your pathology report
- ✓ When were you exposed to asbestos and for how long (employer, duration, duties)
